Do I need to submit any paperwork to my insurance company?

Your insurance company may need a prior authorization from your doctor. Your doctor's office and an Amgen® representative will work together to make sure they know what information to include when submitting a prior authorization.

What is a prior authorization?

A prior authorization helps the insurance company determine whether they will cover your therapy based on certain criteria.

If your prior authorization is denied, your doctor's office can appeal the decision for you with the help of an Amgen® Access Specialist. In most instances, an appeal will require additional information such as your treatment history. Your doctor's office can help with this process to ensure that all relevant information is included.

An Amgen Access Specialist can help your doctor's office figure out your insurance coverage and help you get LUMAKRAS.

What about the cost of LUMAKRAS?
